Shalom, Rav

Dear all,

For about ten years, I have regularly sent out my weekly "Moment in Time." Just about every Thursday morning, at 10am (Pacific), it appears in your inbox. (If you don't receive it, please let our office know). You can also find it each Thursday at the Jewish Journal online edition.

Ron guided me early on in how to offer my message. "K.I.S.S." he said. (And no, he was not being romantic. "Keep It Short and Simple." Or perhaps, "Keep It Simple, Stupid.") He basically shared that we all are inundated with so much. If we want people to read our message, make sure it only takes a "moment in time" to read. Thus, with rare exception, my "moments" are short.

But what goes in to the message itself? I tend not to report on the current events (though at times I do). I tend not to use it to respond to a social issue (though at times, again, I do.)

And it's not about pretending that everything in the world is lovely (because it's not always so lovely out there).

Rather, it's a reminder that every day we have opportunities to notice something awesome.

Rabbi Abraham Joshua Herschel was once teaching a lesson to his students when he stopped and began to gaze out the window. "What's wrong?" asked a student.

"The snow," replied Rabbi Herschel. "It's just so beautiful."

THAT is a moment in time. And they are in front of us, calling our names. Sometimes we are listening, sometimes we are not. The purpose of my "Moment in Time" is to remind MYSELF each week before Shabbat to stop and appreciate the world. And hopefully these moments inspire you to do the same!

With love and Shalom,

Rabbi Zachary Shapiro

Cantor's Corner

What a year it has been. We were filled with hope that 2021 would be a year free of Covid, a year that we could get back to the normal of our previous lives. We realize now that we have to live with the next normal. We don't know if we can get back to the same way of life that existed before Covid. But we have been able to find ways to continue living our lives with purpose and meaning. We have found ways to continue connecting and celebrating with one another. We have found ways to safely worship and sing with each other. We will continue to live our lives to the fullest in a safe manner.

We are thrilled that we can finally pray together inside our Sanctuary once again. There is no comparison to hearing the congregation pray together, to hearing the harmonies of our choir singing together and hearing the rich sounds of our instruments playing together. We will continue to offer engaging, spiritual and meaningful services this year. And we have an incredible line-up of special services.

Please mark your calendars for the following special services:

January 14 Tu B'shvat Seder

January 28 Men's Group Intergenerational L'Dor Vador Shabbat Service

February 18 Broadway Shabbat

March 11 Service with Artist in Residence Charlie Kramer

March 18 ShabbRock Service – Music of the 80's

May 27 Disney Shabbat

June 10 Junior Cantor Shabbat with Liz

June 17 Pride Shabbat Service with Choir

I hope this year will be a year filled with health, meaning, laughter and love.

Happy New Year!

Cantor Lonee Frailich

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Recently at a staff meeting we had a discussion regarding the Temple's Mission, Vision, and Purposes. It was a great discussion and reminded all of us of the importance of what we all do at the Temple. We also took that conversation as an important reminder that our Purposes are not just what's on a piece of paper in our Bylaws, but are things the Temple stands for.

I want to take some time to share with you the six purposes of Temple Akiba. They are the cornerstones, or pillars, of what we stand for, and are here to support and promote the following for its Members:

- The conduct of Jewish religious services;
- The provision of Jewish religious education;
- The enhancement and fostering of cultural and spiritual welfare;
- The advancement of a liberal interpretation of Jewish traditions;
- The service as a Jewish voice in the local community; and
- A vehicle for bringing justice into the world through Tikkun Olam.

January is the time of year when many of us set our goals for the coming year. I like many others seem to have the same new year's resolutions year after year. Perhaps you are successful at your goals, but I am usually very successful up until lunch-time on January 1st.

For this year, I invite you to join me, and look closely at Temple Akiba's Purposes, and make a goal for yourself that aligns with each of the Purposes. The goal might be to attend one religious service each month, or attend a Jewish education class, or participate in one of our many Tikun Olam drives or events. Even though these Purposes are for all of us, our goals for the year, and for each Purpose, can be very different. I invite you to share those goals with someone close, as when you do, you will have someone who can share the journey of attaining your goals.

It is with our Members, Board, Clergy, and Staff coming together to embrace our Mission, Vision, and Purposes that enables Our Light to Shine Brighter Together.

L'Shalom,
Jeffrey Rips, Executive Director

President's Message

Welcome to 2022! We made it through 2021 stronger and brighter than ever thanks to the partnership between our committed and dedicated Staff, Board and Committees, and the support and participation of our members. Despite the ongoing challenges of Covid-19 we are now holding our services indoors and we offered new programs at Temple - Challah Baking, Candle Making and Homebrew 101, brought to you by our new Program Director, Kathryn Vischjager. We have many exciting events planned in January and in the months ahead! I invite you to join in and participate.

Highlighting the launch of our first ever Mishloach Manot, this activity epitomizes Temple Akiba. In the words of Cantor Lonee, "Mishloach Manot is a wonderful way to build community and celebrate the holiday of Purim. It is considered a mitzvah to send Mishloach Manot because this shows that we are a united and strong community that cares about each other. We also send Mishloach Manot to those that are in need in our community." Please read all the details in the flyer on page 10.

Come to our always engaging Tu B'Shevat Seder-Friday, January 14.

Play in Sisterhood's Very Popular Mah Jongg Tournament-Sunday, January 16.

Meet Torah Scribe Linda Coppelson. Learn about the Restoration of one of our Torahs-Jan. 22 - 24.

Perform a Mitzvah-Donate Blood January 23!

Have fun, play games, eat, drink and win prizes at Casino Night-our major fundraiser of the year Saturday, January 29.

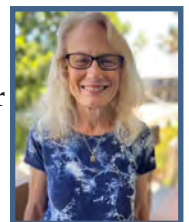

Purim Carnival & Silent Auction-March 20!

Our Caring Community has two outstanding Co-Chairs, Terry Coty & Meg Clements! Let them know if you have a need or want to help those in need.

Lastly, I am so proud to announce that our 15th Mitzvah Day will take place on Sunday, May 22! Plans are underway. Mark your calendars.

On a personal note, we just became grandparents for the second time! Leah gave birth to Julian on December 8! We couldn't be happier.

Tu B'shevat

Planting for the Future

The month of January brings Tu' Bshvat, which is traditionally celebrated as the 'new year of the trees'. In the past century, a custom has emerged that on this day trees are planted, and the Talmud (Ta'anit 23b) relates a famous story. Choni Ha-Maagal, an early rabbi of the Mishna was journeying on the road and he saw a man planting a carob tree; he asked him, "How long does it take for this tree to bear fruit?" The man replied, "Seventy years." He then further asked him. "Are you certain that you will live another seventy years?" The man responded, "I have found carob trees in the world; as my forefathers planted these for me so I too plant these for my children." Soon after, Choni ate a meal, and fell into a deep sleep. Like Rip Van Winkle, the Talmud relates that he magically slept for seventy years! He returned to the tree to see a young boy harvesting the Carob. He asked the boy, "Did you plant this tree." The boy responded that it was his grandfather that did so. In our fast-paced world, do we tend to look only at immediate goals, and not think about our long term visions? Are we asking questions about what we, our families, and our society should look like seventy years from now?

Tu B'shvat in recent years has been associated with the environmental movement. We now realize what we do now (and what we did in the previous decades) will have an impact on our grandchildren. As a society, are we thinking like the farmer, realizing that the year 2092 is just around the corner? What will the world look like then, and what will we leave our grandchildren? Tu B'shvat challenges us to think big about ourselves and our community. May we all be blessed with long life to see the fruits from the seeds we plant.

November donation drive for Grace Diner

Grace Lutheran Church in Culver City operates Grace Diner, a program which provides meals to go and other necessities five nights a week. We had a very successful collection of items they requested – bottled water, tuna, crackers, peanut butter and warm clothing.

December donation drives

We disseminated information about the Jewish Federation's virtual book and toy drive. They have a list of organizations with Amazon wish lists. No way to track participation by our congregants.

We were also invited to participate in a project with the Volunteer Collective. They are collecting warm clothing and toys for kids and adults in the Boyle Heights neighborhood.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR

To the Temple Akiba Community,

First, a word of gratitude. I want to thank you for welcoming me into your community as your new Program Director, and friend. You've entrusted me with this very special Akiba ruach (spirit, energy) and I am delighted to work together to amplify it, revel in it, and grow from it.

We've begun to do this through our now-monthly Challah bake. We're generating even more groups to gather over common interests, including food, fitness, spirituality...with even more to come! In addition, please read below about opportunities that are coming at the start of the new year that benefit from your presence and participation!

Intergenerational Game Night

Akiba is a family, and once a month we'll celebrate the diversity of our community by opening up our social hall after Friday night services for a Game Night. Whether it is through Scrabble, Jenga, Mah Jongg or Shoots & Ladders, all are welcome and encouraged to play!

Havdallah & Kehillah

Havdallah is the beautiful closing ritual of Shabbat, and kehillah means community. Once per month, we'll gather to honor both! We'll gather for a brief and beautiful Havdallah followed by a selection of (optional) activities based on holidays or relevant thematic content. Our kickoff gathering in January will feature Havdallah & activities to celebrate a Tu B'Shevat and nature theme.

To speak personally for a moment, I am a product of the vibrancy of Jewish community, religious school, camp, youth group, and synagogue life. My professional life has continued in all of these areas for nearly two decades. I am profoundly aware of the impact that a strong community can have on individuals, as well as the world at large. If you have not yet hopped into an activity or special interest group, I welcome you to reach out to me and I can help you find your niche at Akiba! Consider it a gift to yourself and to the world. Our Light does indeed Shine Brighter Together!

B'Shalom

Kathryn Vischjager, Program Director

Brighter and Stronger... Together!

With the lights of Chanukkah in our memories, we look towards brightening days ahead when we will be able to once again be together as a community. We hope your holiday celebrations were filled with love and joy and wish good health to everyone as our days ahead lengthen.

We are so happy to once again be able to host our semi-annual Mah Jongg Tournament this January 16th. We are limiting capacity so if you have not yet registered, please do so quickly.

Coffee With the Clergy continues via Zoom on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday mornings at 11:00 AM. We are very excited to share a special session on January 19th, Tu B'Shvat, featuring Chanel Kinkaid, a representative from Culver City's Environmental Programs and Operations Division. She will enlighten us with information so we will know the "hows" and "whys" of recycling and each of us can contribute to saving and celebrating our planet.

One of our Torahs, which has been in the skilled hands of Soferot Linda Coppleson, is being returned on Saturday, January 22nd. There will be a special Havdalah service and many programs from Saturday evening through Monday morning learning about the repair process as well as opportunities to "scribe" with Linda. Please look for further details in flyers and email updates that will be forthcoming.

We thank each and every one who supported our Gift Shop by participating in our annual Chanukah Boutique or making appointments and purchases of all things Judaic this holiday season. Purim and Passover are right around the corner so start thinking about those celebrations. Contact Linda Park at mommylinda50@hotmail.com for an appointment to see what is in our display cases or hidden away in our Gift Shop closets.

Men's Group of Temple Akiba

I had a call from the ex-wife of a friend last night. Simon had passed earlier in the day from a heart attack. Our families had been friends since our daughters, both wearing eye patches, had glommed on to each other 38 years ago at Gan Bracha preschool. Over the years we had celebrated each others victories and shared our setbacks. A little over 10 years ago he had relocated to the Bay Area and slowly our contact had lessened to practically nothing.

His passing made me stop and think - how many friends do I have? I still keep in touch with Ralph and Paul from PS20, Dave from Science, Warren from Penn, and Wolf from UBC. Pretty slim. I realized that I have been pretty bad about maintaining friendships. My guess is that most men are the same. We see the parents of our kids friends when they are in school, the husbands of our spouses friends, maybe a neighbor or coworker. Not much more than that.

This is the gift that membership in the Men's Group offers. The chance to meet with other men from our Temple family, and to develop shared connections based on our own interests. As our Men's Group has developed I have made a number of new friends, people I enjoy seeing, sharing experiences with, arguing or agreeing on what is going on in the world, on a regular basis.

If your experience is similar to mine, I invite you to join us. Women, if your men are as lazy or stubborn as I am, please help get them here. Drop an email to Victor Nahmias @ Vnahmias@aol.com and we will get you on our mailing list today! Ready to get started? Minimum dues of $36 for men, $18 for associates.

Men's Group of Temple Akiba

The Men's Group of Temple Akiba invites you to join us for an exciting variety of events in January and February!

Odd Nansen, a Norwegian, was arrested in 1942 by the Nazis, and spent the remainder of World War II in concentration camps--Grini in Oslo, Veidal above the Arctic Circle, and Sachsenhausen in Germany. For three and a half years, Nansen kept a secret diary on tissue-paper-thin pages later smuggled out by various means, including inside the prisoners' hollowed-out breadboards. Unlike writers of retrospective Holocaust memoirs, Nansen recorded the mundane and horrific details of camp life as they happened. With an unsparing eye, Nansen described the casual brutality and random terror that was the fate of a camp prisoner. His entries reveal his horror at the especially barbaric treatment reserved for Jews, and his disgust at the anti-Semitism of some of his fellow Norwegians. Tim Boyce, our guest speaker, found this story and brought it back from obscurity, allowing it to live among us again.
