Shalom, Rav

Dear all,

I face this New Year with many questions.

Will there be a end to the horrible gun violence we face?

Will fires and floods continue to reign upon our land?

Will Israel have the strength and the humility to create real progress for the region?

Will the enemies of Israel (on the far left) and the haters of Jews (on the far right) end their vitriol?

Will our leaders find solutions to homelessness?

All these world issues weigh heavily on my soul. Perhaps, just perhaps, I can say something or do something to motivate shifts. But then I look into the mirror, and I realize there are questions even more pressing that demand my attention:

What does it mean to be a loving spouse?

Am I being the best son I can be?

Can my friends count, really count, on me?

What kind of father will I be for my twins?

Did I make someone smile today?

The first set of questions and the second are not mutually exclusive. We don't ignore the first and focus only on the second. But Rosh Hashanah is not about looking at the world and expecting it to change. Rosh Hashanah is about looking at ourselves and motivating renewal from within.

May the New Year be filled with strength of body, depth of soul, and reparation of the world. It all starts with bringing goodness from our hearts to others.

With love and shalom,

Rabbi Zach Shapiro

Cantor's Corner

Tradition, Americana, Ordination, Blues, Youth, Altar Ego, Cantor, Dark, Disney.

You may be asking yourself, what is the meaning of this? How do all of these words fit together? They are all brief descriptive words for the incredible new series that we are debuting this year. Thanks to the generosity of two Temple families, we have created for the first time the Flumenbaum/Jaffa Musical Artist Series. We will be bringing in a special guest musical artist every month to Temple Akiba.

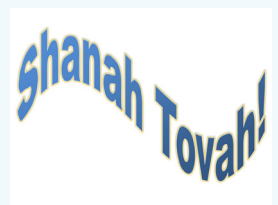

Our first program on Saturday night, October 26, explores the concept of tradition with a condensed musical interpretation of Fiddler on the Roof. In November, singer songwriter Joe Buchanan will join us for a full weekend, sharing his musical talents with an Americana flair. Our December program will showcase Cantor Rebekah Mirsky's brand new one woman show called Ordination, a story of compassion, love and recovery.

In January, Saul Kaye and Elana Jagoda will join us for a weekend filled with original Jewish blues and folk music. We are fortunate to have the guru of early childhood music, Ellen Allard, with us in February for our Tot Shabbat and regular Shabbat services. Cantor Patti Linksy will perform her one woman show about addiction and transformation called Altar Ego in March. Cantors Jay Frailich, Bryce Megdal and Rebekah Mirsky will join me in a Shabbat concert of Four Cantors in April. Charlie Kramer, a singer songwriter, will lead our congregation in a special Havdalah program in the dark in May. And our series ends with the smash success Shabbat of last year – Disney Shabbat.

May this new-year be one of new beginnings, meaningful moments, health and happiness for all!

Shanah Tovah!

Cantor Lonee Frailich

President's Message

What is a community? The dictionary defines it as “a feeling of fellowship with others, as a result of sharing common attitudes, interests, and goals.”

When Carol and I first moved to Culver City, our goal was to find a Jewish community that was warm, welcoming, and had opportunities for engagement which we could embrace. Since Temple Akiba was a reform temple, was located close, had an excellent children’s program, and had a great overall reputation, it seemed a perfect choice for membership. As I reflect back thirty years, it was the right choice.

The first thing we did to meet people and become engaged was to join our first havurah. This havurah had wonderful families with kids of similar age to our own. It was a great way to meet new people and participate in fun activities. Joining this havurah, enrolling our son Jonathan in the nursery school (now called the ECC), and volunteering to help out at the Purim Carnival made us feel like we were really part of the community.

Temple Akiba continues to be a warm welcoming place with many opportunities for engagement.

Joining a havurah, participating in Mitzvah Day or the Purim Carnival, going to our Shabbat services or studying at Torah study are wonderful ways to get involved. Becoming part of a committee, Men’s Group, Sisterhood, the Temple Akiba Board or joining our usher volunteers at High Holy Days are a few more examples.

How do you find community? Temple Akiba has something for everyone, the young and the young at heart! Find your passion and new opportunities to engage.

As we enter this High Holy Day season, I wish everyone a “L’Shana Tova,” a very Happy New Year. May this year be filled with health, happiness and many wonderful events in your life.

I look forward to seeing everyone at our High Holy Day services beginning with Rosh Hashanah Eve on September 29 at the Veterans Auditorium in Culver City.

Ira Diamond

ECC & Religious School

Shalom, and welcome to the 2019-2020 School Year at Temple Akiba Religious School.

For the last two years, a group of dedicated parents, teachers and lay leaders have worked together as members of a “Religious School Task Force.” We have focused our work on innovative change in the Temple Akiba Religious School Program. Our primary Religious School goal is for our children and families to be challenged, inspired, and energized by the power of Jewish ideas and traditions. The new Hebrew program that began last year enables our children to cherish and use Hebrew, the language of the Jewish people, and to value and engage in tefillah (prayer). This portion of our new program relies on a curriculum called “Hebrew through Movement,” in which students learn Hebrew by hearing and responding to Hebrew commands through physical movements.

Meanwhile, as part of our ongoing Religious School innovation project this past year, we conducted focus groups and surveys to gauge the goals of our community for Jewish Education. We have narrowed the field to several core areas of importance to our stakeholders. These areas include: Basic Knowledge Base, Jewish identity, the school home connection, Jewish experiences, building community and examining ethics and Jewish values. These central values allowed us to begin asking questions which will shape the goals of our program.

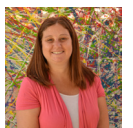

Questions such as: How does a child’s religious education contribute to his/her Jewish identity? How can the Religious School help enhance your Jewish experience at home? How can the Religious School help build your Jewish community? How can Religious School help your child to take the values learned beyond the synagogue walls? And finally, what is your vision for your child’s Jewish future after they have completed their religious education?

Parents will see the answers to these questions emerge over the course of this year as the Task Force works to provide more community building experiences and social action engagement opportunities for our families.

I would also like to add a warm welcome to all of our new students and families in the Religious School this year. Whether it is your first time at Temple Akiba, or just your first time at school, welcome to the community. We are glad you are here and we look forward to getting to know you this year.

We look forward to seeing you at 9:00 am for the first day of school on Sunday, September 8th as we welcome the new school year together.

Randee Bishoff, Director of Education

TEMPLE AKIBA SISTERHOOD

Brighter and Stronger... Together!

September brings with it so many things to remember and accomplish: Labor Day which traditionally is the formal end of summer vacation regardless of the temperature outside; back to school with new backpacks and clothes, tons of paperwork and a return to rush hour congestion; Temple membership renewal and High Holy Day prep with tons of paperwork and family gatherings; and Sisterhood membership with something less than tons of paperwork. Our Membership materials have been sent in their familiar blue envelope and we welcome your support, affiliation and participation in our efforts to enhance the role of Temple Akiba of Culver City in your lives.

Please join us at our annual Welcome Nosh, co-sponsored by the Temple and the Men's Group on Sunday, September 8th, in the Wolkowitz Field. Enjoy a bagel and coffee and meet with many members of our Temple's leadership as well as our community.

We continue our volunteer experiences cooking with the kids at the Lou Colon Children's Health and Wellness Center on September 12th and 26th and October 10th and 24th. This project provides us the opportunity to interact with both youth and adults in a fun and educational program.

Temple Akiba Sisterhood is again organizing a team for our engagement with NAMI (the National Alliance for Mental Illness) in their 5K Walk on October 5th. We hope you will consider joining us to walk for this significant cause and/or support our team with your pledge.

Be sure to look for Sisterhood members following the Yom Kippur services as we are once again honored to distribute mini challahs as you leave.

An exciting evening is scheduled for Tuesday, October 29th, when once again we are privileged with Dr. Raphael Sonenshein's charismatic presence at our Membership Dinner. This previously sold-out event begins with dinner at 6:00 p.m. and is followed by an informative presentation that promises to be enlightening. Paid reservations are required for the dinner and we encourage you to make yours as soon as possible.

SAVE THE DATE: Sisterhood Annual Hanukkah Boutique: December 8th. This is a wonderful opportunity not only to purchase your gelt, dreidels and candles, but also to view the array of items available in our Sisterhood Gift Shop. We have almost any ritual item you might want, many artisan items, and a lovely selection of gift choices in a wide range of prices. Until the Boutique shopping at our Gift Shop is by appointment. Contact Linda Park, mommylinda50@hotmail.com to arrange an appointment.

As always, Sisterhood encourages you to take advantage of the ability to Sponsor an Oneg Shabbat to celebrate or memorialize a significant event. Contact Linda Park, mommylinda50@hotmail.com, for information about this opportunity.

Be sure to look for flyers about all of the above events and more in the carousel in the Temple foyer. We encourage and are grateful for your support and participation. Sisterhood extends to all a wish for a healthy, peaceful, and happy New Year. Shana Tova u'Metukah.
